Give Myself Away | London | Bullet | Monday Morning | The Outside

Give Myself Away (Album: The Outside)

I couldn't run if i tried to I've tried to I couldn't stay if i wanted to I want to your beauty makes me shiver your beauty makes crawl I can change from one day to the next I can be anything you want we will be together like lovers lost forever
I feel no pain
I feel no pain

I've lost my sense of direction I'm feeling slightly strange Don't leave me here with empty hands I just might fade away your beauty makes me follow your beauty flows like a feather I'll tell you anything you want and give myself away

We will be together like lovers lost forever
I feel no pain
I feel no pain
come now gimme shelter and take me out Take me out of the rain
Out of the rain

Through these crowded street Under the city lights I'll slip away
I can't sleep tonight I'm waiting for you to come and pin

I feel no pain
I feel no pain
come now gimme shelter and take me out

London (Album: The Outside) nach oben oh you're making me feel close to something real I'm down here on my knees what's gonna happen to me waiting for the summer sun I need for you to come on strong kiss me when I'm on my back and tell me i'm the best you've ever had

She gave me london
and all her twisted pain
She gave me wisdom
and a reason to stay sane

Bruised and in your room my mind is clear when in front of you I love the smell of your skin It's crawling all over me again

you and me

She gave me something
But i threw it all away
I tought i heard her say

Bullet (Album: The Outside) nach oben she's like a bullet waiting to shoot me waiting to thrill me i want her to thrill me she's liquid and lucid my eyes have seen it i need to believe it i need to feel it

it's these broken times where nothing is quite what i thought it be like
i don't know what's right
got some questions now
are we making progress

she's got the world on her shoulder but no one to hold her she's constantly looking for something better so i watch from a distance as she moves through the crowd she's slightly damage she's slightly out

oh she makes me feel so blue But there's no real reason to

Monday Morning (Album: The Outside) nach oben monday morning, music's gone been in this place for far to long i've got no great expectations i've got no plans or place to fall but it's alright, it makes no difference now all the things we haven't done,

with you i should have known
don't worry now
so where do we go from here
just tell me something
are we losing touch

monday morning it's quiet now all these faces are fading out i'm slowly moving to nowhere i can't explain, no i can't express all the things that are on mind but it makes no difference now all the things we haven't said we'll say some other time

look at you, look at you now you're not so confident you're not so innocent nothing's new, nothing's changed are you still trying to forget all the things inside you head

The Outside (Album: The Outside) nach oben fallin' in, fallin' out i keep fallin' in and out of sleep i try to keep an open mind as it all comes back to me if only i could find a way through here i can feel it rushing through me all these thoughts of no real meaning they're in my head i can't control it

if only i could see this from the outside turning on, turning off the light that shines on me i feel i'm gonna lose my ground it's slipping underneath me i'll try my best to leave it all behind

sneakin' in, creepin' out cause i don't want you to notice i'm slowly starting to give in it's in my hands, i can't hold it
feel you now
